Participant Guidelines

A. Basic Guidelines

1. The application form should be used to apply for the Eco-School on Water, Food and Climate Justice only. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have followed the instructions in these guidelines.
2. Please type or write clearly on the application form. The details you give in your application form will be used for the administration of your application, and potentially as the basis of your participant record. If the form is incorrectly completed your application may be delayed and may not be processed.
3. Your surname/family name is used to identify and match all materials sent with your application and for dealing with enquiries. Please use only the full name given in your passport and identity documents.
4. You are expected to have sufficient working knowledge of English since medium of instruction will be English.
5. You are advised to apply well in advance of the closing date for applications. The completed application form must be accompanied by all the supporting materials listed in Section B.
6. The Eco-School will train church youth between the ages of 18-30 years. There will be a maximum 20 participants for the school.
7. The eligibility criteria of candidates include:
  - a) Must be an African national.
  - b) Hold at least a Bachelors degree in any discipline including theology, sociology or social work. A Master's degree is preferable.
  - c) Basic knowledge on ecology and issues related to water, food, nutrition and climate change.
  - d) Passion for justice (assessed through an essay).
  - e) A letter of endorsement from your church or ecumenical organization.
  - f) After meeting the eligibility criteria, participants will be selected with a view to achieving regional, gender and denominational balance.
8. Selected participants are granted full scholarship, including flights, accommodation and board. However, a registration fees of US$150 is mandatory for each participant or from the endorsing church/organization. This amount must be paid before or at the beginning of the school.

9. Selected participants must agree to attend the full programme from 24 July - 3 August 2017.
