Greeting/Salutation/Saludos

With those who pray in their cells,
 ↗ with those who work in the inner cities
 ↗ seeking to create community among the lonely.

Avec ceux et celles qui prient dans leur cellule, avec ceux et celles qui, au cœur de la ville, s'efforcent de créer un sentiment de communauté parmi les personnes seules,

*Con los que oran en sus celdas,
 Con los que trabajan en el corazón de las ciudades por crear una comunidad allí donde hay soledad,*

avec ceux et celles
 qui se trouvent dans des coins reculés de la planète, ↗ avec ceux et celles
 ↗ qui se trouvent au pied des structures bancaires de la société contemporaine.

with those who are found in remote corners of the globe with those near the banking structures of contemporary society,

Con los que se encuentran en los rincones remotos del planeta, Con los que están en la base de las estructuras económicas de nuestra sociedad actual,

*Con los que oran para que "venga a nosotros tu Reino", ↗ Nos reunimos en esta comunidad
 ↗ que participa en el poder dinámico del Espíritu Santo ↗ en la lucha por la transformación de todas las cosas.*

with all those praying "Your Kingdom Come",
 we are gathered into the community which contributes to the whole dynamic power of the Spirit in the battle for the transformation of all things, avec tous ceux et celles qui prient «Fais venir ton règne», nous sommes rassemblés au sein de la communauté qui contribue à la dynamique du pouvoir de l'Esprit dans la bataille pour la transformation de toutes choses,

the community of Emilio Castro,
 ↗ the community he longed for,
 ↗ the community he encouraged and strengthened.

la communauté d'Emilio Castro, la communauté à laquelle il aspirait,
 la communauté qu'il encourageait et soutenait.

*la comunidad de Emilio Castro, la comunidad que anhelábamos
 la comunidad a la que infundió fuerza y valor.*

Nous sommes réunis pour honorer sa mémoire et pour rendre grâce à sa vie et son œuvre

Hymn/Chant/Himno

A toi la gloire

1. A toi la gloire, ô Ressuscité!
A toi la victoire, pour l'éternité!
Brillant de lumière, l'ange est descendu,
il roule la pierre du tombeau vaincu.

Refrain:

A toi la gloire, ô Ressuscité!
A toi la victoire pour l'éternité!

2. Vois-le paraître, c'est lui, c'est Jésus, ton Sauveur, ton Maître; Oh! ne doute plus;
sois dans l'allégresse, peuple du Seigneur, et redis sans cesse que Christ est vainqueur!

3. Craindrais-je encore? Il vit à jamais, celui que j'adore, le Prince de paix;
il est ma victoire, mon puissant soutien,
ma vie et ma gloire, non, je ne crains rien!

1. Yours be the glory, yours O risen friend!
You have won forever victory without end!
O how bright an angel rolls the stone away.
Conquered is the tomb in which your body lay.

Refrain:
Yours be the glory, yours, O risen friend!
You have won forever victory without end.

2. See, here is Jesus! Who else could it be?
He, your Lord and Savior, surely it is he!
Happy Church of Jesus, you who doubt no more,
never cease to tell us Christ is conqueror!

3. He lives forever! Bids me fear no more;
 he is Prince of Peace, the one whom I adore.
 With him to support me, victory shall be won:
 Now, my life, my glory, every fear is gone!

*1. Tuya es la gloria, victorioso Redentor, porque tú la muerte has vencido hoy.
 Qitan la gran piedra ángeles de luz;
 en la tumba el lienzo guardan, oh Jesús.*

Coro:

*Tuya es la gloria, victorioso Redentor,
 porque tú la muerte has vencido hoy.*

*2. Vemos que llega el resucitado ya;
 ansias y temores El nos quitará.
 Que su iglesia alegre cante la canción:
 ¡Vivo está! ¡La muerte pierde su aguijón!*

*3. ¡Ya no dudamos, Príncipe de vida y paz!
 Sin ti no valemos; fortaleza das.
 Mas que vencedores haznos por tu amor,
 al hogar celeste llévanos, Señor.*

Prayer/Prière/Oración

Let us pray:
 God of life and death,
 Friend of all who seek your will,
 Lover of Emilio Castro, grant us who remember him this day the perspective of your Kingdom which changes death, the closing of historical possibilities, into a dimension of hope, because the cross of your Beloved, Jesus Christ is followed by the morning of resurrection, affirming your resources to take on our historical tragedies, and turn them into instruments of redemption, proclaiming liberation, through this same Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

♣ Amen.

Oremos:
*Dios de la vida y de la muerte Amigo de los que buscan discernir tu voluntad que envolviste con tu amor a Emilio Castro, permítanos a los que nos reunimos para recordarle en este día contemplar la luz de tu Reino que confiere a la muerte y a la obstrucción de las posibilidades de la historia una dimensión de esperanza, porque a la cruz de tu amado Jesucristo le sigue la mañana de resurrección, afirmando tus recursos para asumir nuestras tragedias históricas
 y convertirlas en instrumentos de redención, proclamando la liberación a través del propio Jesucristo, que vive y reina junto a ti y al Espíritu Santo, un sólo Dios, ahora y siempre Amén.*

Song/Chant/Canción"Gracias a la vida" by Violeta Parra (Chile)

*Gracias a la vida que me ha dado tanto
 Me dio dos luceros que cuando los abro
 Perfecto distingo lo negro del blanco
 Y en el alto cielo su fondo estrellado
 Y en las multitudes el hombre que yo amo*

*Gracias a la vida que me ha dado tanto
 Me ha dado el sonido y el abecedario
 Con él, las palabras que pienso y declaro
 Madre, amigo, hermano
 Y luz alumbrando la ruta del alma del que estoy amando*

*Gracias a la vida que me ha dado tanto
 Me ha dado la marcha de mis pies cansados
 Con ellos anduve ciudades y charcos
 Playas y desiertos, montañas y llanos
 Y la casa tuya, tu calle y tu patio*

*Gracias a la vida que me ha dado tanto
 Me dio el corazón que agita su marco
 Cuando miro el fruto del cerebro humano
 Cuando miro el bueno tan lejos del malo
 Cuando miro el fondo de tus ojos claros*

*Gracias a la vida que me ha dado tanto
 Me ha dado la risa y me ha dado el llanto
 Así yo distingo dicha de quebranto
 Los dos materiales que forman mi canto
 Y el canto de ustedes que es el mismo canto
 Y el canto de todos que es mi propio canto*

Gracias a la vida, gracias a la vida

Thanks to life that has given me so much
 It gave me two bright stars and when i open them
 I distinguish perfectly the black from the white
 And in the high sky its starred backdrop
 And in the crowd the man I love

Thanks to life, which has given me so much
 It has given me sound and the alphabet
 And with it the words to think and speak
 Mother, friend, brother, and the light that brightens
 The path of the soul of my loved one.

Thanks to life, which has given me so much
 It has kept my tired feet walking
 With them I walked through cities and puddles,
 Beaches and deserts, mountains and plains
 And your house, your street and your courtyard.

Thanks to life, which has given me so much
 It gave me my heart, which shakes its frame
 When I look at the fruit of the human brain

When I look at good ones so far from bad ones
 When I look at the bottom of your light-color eyes.

Thanks to life, which has given me so much
 It has given me laughter and it has given me tears
 Thus I distinguish between joy and pain,
 They are all elements of my song and of your song, which is all one and the same.

Thanks to life, which has given me so much

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné
 Elle m'a donné deux étoiles qui, lorsque je les ouvre,
 Me font parfaitement distinguer le noir du blanc
 Et, dans les hauteurs du ciel, la voûte étoilée
 Et, dans les multitudes, l'homme que j'aime

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné
 Elle m'a donné le son et l'alphabet;
 Et avec lui, les mots que je pense et déclare:
 Mère, ami, frère et lumière éclairant
 La route de l'âme de celui que j'aime

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné
 Elle m'a donné la marche de mes pieds fatigués;
 Avec eux j'ai foulé villes et flaques d'eau,
 Plages et déserts, montagnes et plaines,
 Et ta maison, ta rue et ton patio

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné
 Elle m'a donné le cœur qui agite son cadre
 Quand je regarde le fruit du cerveau humain,
 Quand je regarde le bien si loin du mal,
 Quand je regarde au fond de tes yeux clairs

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné
 Elle m'a donné le rire et elle m'a donné les pleurs
 Ainsi je distingue le bonheur de la détresse,
 Les deux matériaux qui forment mon chant,
 Et votre chant qui n'est autre que mon chant,
 Et le chant de tous qui est mon propre chant

Merci à la vie qui m'a tant donné

1. God will guide me in paths that aim for justice, in ways that lead to truth.
God will give me the strength to keep on struggling, advancing without fear.

When the valleys of darkness overwhelm me I need not be afraid.

Gospel reading/Lecture de l'Évangile/Evangelio

Matthew/ Matthieu/Mateo 5:1-11

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

À la vue des foules, Jésus monta dans la montagne. Il s'assit, et ses disciples s'approchèrent de lui. Et, prenant la parole, il les enseignait:

«Heureux les pauvres de cœur: le Royaume des cieux est à eux.

Heureux ceux qui pleurent: ils seront consolés.

Heureux les doux: ils auront la terre en partage.

Heureux ceux qui ont faim et soif de justice: ils seront rassasiés.

Heureux les miséricordieux: il leur sera fait miséricorde.

Heureux les cœurs purs: ils verront Dieu.

Heureux ceux qui font œuvre de paix: ils seront appelés enfants de Dieu.

Heureux ceux qui sont persécutés pour la justice: le Royaume des cieux est à eux.

Heureux êtes-vous lorsque l'on vous insulte, que l'on vous persécute et que l'on dit faussement contre vous toute sorte de mal à cause de moi. Soyez dans la joie et l'allégresse, car votre récompense est grande dans les cieux; c'est ainsi en effet qu'on a persécuté les prophètes qui vous ont précédés.

We are not condemned to live in the infernal cycle of violence.
 The sinful continuity has been broken.
 A new possibility now opens up for humankind.

Nous ne sommes pas condamnés à vivre dans le cycle infernal de la violence.
 Le cercle du péché a été brisé.
 Une nouvelle possibilité s'ouvre désormais à l'humanité.

Prayer/Prière/Oración

Let us pray.
 God of justice and hope,
 we give thanks for Emilio Castro who saw what others fail to see:
 demonstrations of love, foretastes of liberty, expressions of solidarity, that he recognized as forming part of your action in all humanity.

As a prophet he named manifestations of injustice, of oppression, of hate, of division, operating in the church and in the surrounding society, which were obstacles for the march of humankind toward the 'jubilee', toward an equalizing justice, toward a possibility of reconciliation.

His words, his support, his charisma, his warmth become part of your Spirit's comforting grace for the days ahead.

You have blessed us with his witness to your coming realm.
 Add our voices, and our lives, to his example
 as we join him in that prayer, which unites him and us with the saints and angels around your throne:
 your will be done, your kingdom come, through Jesus Christ.

 Amen.

Prions.
 Dieu de justice et d'espérance,
 nous rendons grâce à Emilio Castro,
 qui a vu ce que d'autres n'ont pas su voir:

des manifestations d'amour, des avant-goûts de liberté, des expressions de solidarité, qu'il considérait comme faisant partie intégrante de ton action dans toute l'humanité.

Prophète, il dénonçait les manifestations d'injustice, d'oppression, de haine et de division à l'œuvre au sein de l'Église et dans la société qui l'entoure, les qualifiant d'obstacles à la marche de l'humanité vers le «jubilé», vers une justice assurant l'égalité et vers une possibilité de réconciliation.

Ses mots, son soutien, son charisme, sa chaleur font désormais partie de la grâce réconfortante de ton Esprit pour les jours à venir.

Tu nous as fait grâce du témoignage qu'il a rendu à ton Royaume à venir.

Ajoute nos voix et nos vies à son exemple pendant que nous nous joignons à lui dans cette prière qui nous unit - lui et nous - avec les saints et les anges autour de ton trône:
Que ta volonté soit faite, que ton règne vienne, par Jésus Christ.

Amen.

Sending forth/Envoi/Envío

Even at this moment when we gather to remember and mourn,
Emilio, ever the evangelist, would call us to discipleship.
And he would wish us farewell.

We go forth with the words of Emilio
Jesus Christ invites us to walk in his company in the struggle that he carries on for his Kingdom;
thus he will invite men and women to take up the cross,
to follow after him, to march toward the "ends of the earth", knowing that he will be present in every disinherited and needy person.

Même à ce moment où nous nous réunissons pour nous souvenir dans la peine, Emilio, grand évangéliste, nous aurait appelé à être des disciples. et il nous aurait fait ses adieux.

Nous allons avec les paroles d'Emilio.

Jésus Christ nous invite à marcher en sa compagnie dans la lutte qu'il mène pour son Royaume; ainsi, il invitera hommes et femmes à prendre la croix, à le suivre, à marcher vers «les extrémités de la terre», sachant qu'il sera présent en chaque personne déshéritée et dans le besoin.

 porque El quebró el silencio y la agonía;
 porque llenó la tierra de su gloria;

 porque exaltó a los niños, las mujeres,

 sobre la muerte, el miedo, las mentiras;
 ya nada puede detener su historia,
 ni de su Reino eterno la venida.*

2. Because he drove the merchants from the temple, denouncing evil and hypocrisy,
 because he raised up little ones and women,
 and put down all the mighty from their seats,
 because he bore the cross for our wrongdoings,
 and understood our failings and our weakness,
 because he suffered from our condemnation and then he died for every mortal creature.

3. Because of victory one morning early,
 when he defeated death and fear and sorrow,
 so nothing can hold back his mighty story
 nor his eternal kingdom tomorrow.

Emilio Castro

The World Council of Churches gives thanks to God for the life of Emilio Castro, who served for nearly twenty years as a leading member of the WCC staff, and from 1985 to 1992 as our fourth general secretary. Dr Castro passed away in Montevideo, Uruguay on the evening of Saturday 6 April 2013 at the age of 85.

Emilio Castro was born in Montevideo, Uruguay, on May 2, 1927 to a working class family. He began attending the Methodist Church in his neighbourhood of La Aguada when he was 9 years old.

Following his theological studies at the theological faculty in Buenos Aires, he began his ministry with the Methodist congregations of Trinidad, Durazno and Paso de los Toros, Uruguay in 1950.

In 1953 he was the first Latin American student to attend the lectures of Karl Barth in Basel. After returning Latin America, he spent three years as pastor in La Paz, Bolivia, before returning to Uruguay to become the pastor of the Central Methodist Church in Montevideo in February 1957.

In 1965 Castro was designated part-time secretary general of UNELAM, the provisional evangelical committee on Christian unity in Latin America —the ecumenical body that paved the way for the formation of the Latin American Council of Churches (CLAI) in 1979.

During the social and political convulsions of the 1970's, marked with serious social unrest in Uruguay, Castro played an essential role in fostering dialogue between different political groupings and in the creation of Frente Amplio, a broad coalition of democratic forces.

In 1973 he joined the World Council of Churches as director of the Commission on World Mission and Evangelism (CWME) bringing to this post, as the late Bishop Lesslie Newbigin said, "a glowing assurance about the gospel and a corresponding desire to share it, a burning compassion for the victims of public wrong, a pastoral care for individual people and a bubbling sense of humour."

As director of CWME, Castro paved the way for the active participation of churches from Eastern European countries in the life of the Council. His personal leadership was crucial for the production of Mission and Evangelism - An Ecumenical Affirmation, considered the most important and comprehensive statement on mission by the World Council of Churches, adopted in 1982 after lengthy discussions with churches all over the world.

Throughout his leadership in CWME, Castro insisted that the humanization of life through evangelism is a fundamental Christian responsibility and that the support and betterment of humanity, motivated by God's love, is the main aim of all missionary vocation.

He taught courses on missiology and ecumenics at the theological faculty in Montpellier, France, and at the Illif Theological Seminary in Denver, USA. He earned his PhD degree from the University of Lausanne in December 1984.

In 1985 he became the fourth secretary general of the World Council of Churches, succeeding Philip Potter, a position in which he served until 1992. His seven years in the post saw the Council facing some of the most critical changes in contemporary history, particularly surrounding the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe.

As the main officer of the Council, Castro fostered encounters with people of other faiths and ideological convictions, and offered the open arms of fellowship to evangelicals.

He greatly facilitated the participation and representation of Orthodox churches in all areas of the life of the Council and strongly advocated in favour of "eucharistic hospitality" in his conversations with church leaders and including Pope John Paul II.

A leading ecumenist of the late 20th century, Emilio Castro will be remembered for his unfaltering efforts in bringing together Christian faith and spirituality with radical commitment in the struggles for justice. As he once said: "The struggles to overcome oppressions have economic, social and political manifestations that should be considered on their own merits. But at the root there is a spiritual reality: principalities, powers of evil that need to be combated with spiritual powers and spiritual realities: the power of love, the power of hope, the power of the gospel."

During the last years of his life, Emilio Castro returned to his pastoral ministry, serving the Methodist Church in his native Uruguay from 1992 to 1997. On October 19th 1997, he was installed as a member of the Pastoral Team of the Latin American Christian Community, a part of the United Methodist Church in Onex, Geneva. Until 2003, he offered his services there on a regular part-time basis. During the remaining years of his life, he continued to minister occasionally as a guest preacher to the international, multicultural congregation he had helped build and empower as a "Spiritual Home to Latin Americans in Geneva."
