

GETI 2018

Global Ecumenical Theological Institute, Arusha, Tanzania, 5-13 March 2018

Translating the Word, Transforming the World

- 8 Weeks E-learning programme
Supported by Globethics.net
- 12 Study groups
- 24 Academic facilitators

The GETI 2018 participants' assignments will be built around the idea of the pilgrimage. The assignments on each of the five focus themes will incorporate various forms of expression that are honoured in different cultures. Students will choose one "track" of assignments that take advantage of their vocational goals and preferred forms of expression.

- 4 Possible tracks
  - Letter Writing
  - Creative Writing
  - Visual and Bodily Expression
  - Academic Writing Track

Week 1: Who am I? Where do I live and why is ecumenism and mission important for me?

Week 2: Mutual invitation to building together the holy ground rules for interaction at GETI 2018

Week 3: Focus area 1: Ecumenism and Mission

Week 4: Focus area 2: Mission and Evangelism

Week 5: Focus area 3: World Christianity and Intercultural Theology

Week 6: Focus area 4: African/African Diaspora Theologies and Realities of Mission Practice

Week 7: Focus area 5: The Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace

Week 8: Let's go to Arusha – learning, sharing, celebrating: GETI 2018 Prayer and community Life