May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind always be at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.

And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

May the Lord guide your feet
in the way of justice and peace.

May God’s word of justice and our Lord Jesus’ example of peace guide us in our pilgrimage
like a pillar of fire.

Go in peace
to love and serve the Lord.
We do not lose heart: afflicted but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed. The one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also into his presence. So we do not lose heart.

Do justice, love kindness, walk humbly with your God.

Bless to me, O God, the earth beneath my feet,
Bless to me, O God, the path whereon I go,
Bless to me, O God, the people whom I meet,
Today, tonight and tomorrow. Amen

(A prayer used by the Iona Community in Scotland)

In the tender compassion of our God the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace

(Luke 1: 76-79 (ICEL))
