APPENDIX TO SERIES I*

Pamphlets Nos. 1 through 32 were published by the Joint Commission appointed by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, October 19, 1910, to arrange for a World Conference on Faith and Order. The Commission was appointed by joint action of the House of Bishops and of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, and was composed of members of both Houses. Its instructions were to invite other Churches to join with it in arranging for and calling a World Conference on Faith and Order. Direction of the Movement continued in the hands of the Joint Commission until the Preliminary Meeting held August 12-20, 1920, in Geneva. The Commission's Secretary, Mr. Robert H. Gardiner, chose to use the address of his home in Gardiner, Maine, as the official address for correspondence and mailings. Thus it appears upon the pamphlets. But more and more his untiring work in promotion of the Movement was done from his law office in Boston, Massachusetts.

Pamphlets Nos. 33 through 103 were published by the Continuation Committee, first appointed by the Preliminary Meeting at Geneva, 1920 ; a new Continuation Committee was appointed by the Lausanne Conference of 1927, and a third by the Edinburgh Conference of 1937. Mr. Gardiner was chosen General Secretary of the Geneva Continuation Committee and served until his death on June 15, 1924. The Continuation Committee appointed his assistant, Mr. Ralph W. Brown, as " Head of the Secretariat," and the office continued in Boston, though no longer in Mr. Gardiner's law office. The address became " P. O. Box 226, Boston, Mass." In 1930 Mr. Brown, who had been made General Secretary of the Continuation Committee at Lausanne, opened an office in Geneva, Switzerland. The Boston Office was moved to New York, at 111 Fifth Avenue, under the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins as American Secretary, and in 1934 was moved to his home in Washington, Conn. In 1933 the Rev. Dr. Leonard Hodgson, Canon of Winchester Cathedral, England, succeeded Mr. Brown as General Secretary and the address on the pamphlets was changed to Winchester. When Canon Hodgson became Professor and Canon of Christ Church, Oxford, the Oxford address succeeded that of Winchester. In 1948 the Continuation Committee became the Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches, and the Rev. Oliver S. Tomkins was appointed Secretary of the Commission with office at 7, Kensington Church Court, London ; this address appears on No. 103, the last pamphlet of the series and the first of the second series.

Note A. Nos. 4, 9, and 10, are the only translations of No. 2 into Greek, German, and French respectively. It is necessary to note this because a paragraph in pamphlet No. 33, bottom of page 95, incorrectly states that three pamphlets published in 1920 are translations of No. 2. These three 1920 pamphlets, which are not part of the numbered series, are translations of a document inviting the Churches to send delegates to the Preliminary Meeting in Geneva in August, 1920 ; whereas No 2 is the original Resolution of 1910.

Note B. On Pamphlets 14, 15, 18, 19, and 20 the actual date of printing is stated on reprints, not on the first issue.

List of Numbered Pamphlets, Series II, 1948 - -.*

Explanatory Note.

The Second Series of Faith and Order pamphlets continues the series of numbered pamphlets issued from 1910 to 1948, first by the Joint Commission appointed by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A. to arrange for a World Conference of all Christian Churches on questions of Faith and Order, and then by the Continuation Committees appointed by the Preliminary Meeting at Geneva (1920), by the First World Conference at Lausanne (1927), and by the Second World Conference at Edinburgh (1937). In August 1948, at the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches held in Amsterdam, the Faith and Order Continuation Committee became the Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches ; and it seemed appropriate that the serial numbering of its publications should indicate this new stage in its on-going work. Hence the first was marked " New Series No. 1," and so with Nos. 2, 4, and 8. No. 3 bore the designation " Faith and Order Papers : No. 3," and this marking was used on Nos. 5, 6, 7, 9, and subsequent issues.

In August, 1952, the Third World Conference was held at Lund, Sweden. Various papers, usually mimeo-graphed but sometimes printed, were circulated in preparation for the Conference with the designation FOL (Faith and Order : Lund) and serial number. A similar designation, FOC (Faith and Order Commission), had been used since 1948 for documents circulated to the Commission. These two series of documents are not included in this list.

The different addresses that appear on the front or back covers of the pamphlets require a word of explanation. At Amsterdam Dr. Hodgson resigned his responsibilities as General Secretary, although continuing as Theological Secretary until after the Lund Conference. The Rev. Oliver S. Tomkins was elected Secretary of the Commission, with temporary office at 7, Kensington Church Court, London, W.B. The following year the office was moved to 39, Doughty Street, London, W.C. where it remained until, at the end of 1952, Mr. Tomkins became chairman of the Commission's Working Committee and was succeeded as Secretary of the Commission by the Rev. Dr. J. Robert Nelson, with office at the World Council's headquarters, 17 Route de Malagnou, Geneva, henceforth its permanent location. In 1957 Dr. Nelson was succeeded as Secretary by the Rev. Dr. Keith R. Bridston, who served through June 1961. That year the Commission's staff was increased to three officers with new titles : the Rev. Prof. Paul S. Minear, Director of the Commission on Faith and Order, the Rev. Dr. Lukas Vischer as Research Secretary, and the Rev. Patrick C. Rodger who took office in 1962 as Executive Secretary. Active preparations began for the Fourth World Conference on Faith and Order, to meet in Montreal, Canada, from July 12 to 26, 1963.

Pamphlets 1 through 16 and No. 20 were printed in England, except that Nos. 12 and 13 were printed in Lund. No. 17 was printed in Geneva, No. 18 in New York and No. 29 in London. Nos. 19 and 21 through 27, also No. 31, were printed in Lausanne, Nos. 28, 30, and 32 through 35 issued from Switzerland.

DeGroot, Honorary Archivist with the special assistance of the Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins, Faith and Order Commission, World Council of Churches, Geneva, 1963. The data of the list of Series II as presented here was collected by intern Ms Anika Sergel-Kohls and subsequently updated by Faith and Order Secretariat.
